

Garnier's objectives were to use the point of sale advertising as a tool to promote their special offers for their products in the Carrefour Chain of Supermarkets and Orphanides Chain of Supermarkets.

The glass show case scrolling displays together with the City Lights by the entrances of all supermarkets managed to create maximum impact around the product promotion.

The campaign was successful and produced positive results.